THIS WEEK IN THE PARISH

200 Club Winner

Justice and Peace news

Different pasts, shared futures: To mark World Refugee Day (20th June 2017) the Jesuit Refugee Service partners with many other Catholic organisations called for the world to build bridges of solidarity with our refugee sisters and brothers, not walls. Increasingly around the world we witness the building of walls to keep out the displaced: not just physical walls, but also walls of fear, prejudice, hatred, and ideology. Let us all, as one human family, strive to build bridges of solidarity rather than walls of division. Our refugee sisters and brothers present us with opportunities for mutual enrichment and flourishing: it is God who brings us together.

Church Flower Arranging Workshop - Saturday 8th July at 10.00 a.m.

We are holding a workshop in the Sacristy for anyone who may be interested in joining our team of parish Flower Arrangers. Nuala Clarke will lead the workshop and will demonstrate how to make the different flower arrangements required within the church.

We really need people to commit to helping with this ministry on a regular basis to increase our team. Currently we work on a 'once a month' rota but the more people we can recruit the lighter the load will be. Please contact Judy Sheridan on 077891 52862 if you are interested in attending the workshop.

Afternoon Tea

Many thanks to all those who supported our Parish afternoon tea last Saturday and particularly to those who baked, served and cleared. It was a wonderful community occasion and also raised £788.15 for Parish funds.
